

TERMS: ONE YEAR, $1.50. SIX MONTHS, 75c. Two Dollars if not paid in advance.

THE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Democratic party of Anderson County, at the Intelligencer office in Anderson, on Thursday next, the 15th of June, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of transacting business of very great importance. The State Convention having been called for the first of August, all questions relative to a reorganization of the party in this county which may be presented will be considered by the Committee. Every member who can be present is requested to attend punctually, and those who cannot come will please send some thoroughly representative member of their club to represent them at the meeting.

E. B. MURRAY, County Chairman.
G. F. TOLLY, Secretary.

President Arthur has appointed Gen. Chesnut, an ex-United States Senator and member of the Confederate Congress from this State, as a member of the Tariff Commission. Gen. Chesnut is a Democrat of conservative views, and will make a most able and efficient member of the Tariff Commission.

The Blue Ridge Scrip man is seeking a compromise with the State. The whole transaction connected with the creation of the scrip were huge swindles, and have been so decided by our Courts when they were presided over by Republican Judges. The people of the State should never be called on to pay one dollar of these stealings of the Republican party.

The nomination of Col. Hugh S. Thompson for Governor, which is made by our correspondent, "Anderson," is a most excellent one. Col. Thompson will not be a candidate for the office, but he cannot decline if nominated. He would make a splendid Governor if elected, and would give to the State the most enthusiastic canvass we have had since 1876. He is a fine organizer, an eloquent speaker and a genial gentleman. He would be as easily elected as any man we could nominate.

Mr. Russell admitted unwittingly the true inwardness of Greenbackism in South Carolina when he said that he believed E. W. Mackey entitled to his seat in Congress. There were charges of forgery and perjury in the evidence presented by Mackey, and yet a Republican Congress refuses to investigate these charges, and seats him with such accusations hanging over him. Mr. Russell, the leader of the Greenbackers, admits that he thinks he was rightfully seated. We have all along contended that the Greenbackers are really valuable allies of the Republican party, and such admissions as this show our opinion to be correct.

The Board of Directors of the Savannah Valley Railroad held an important meeting here last week, at which many questions of grave importance to the road were acted upon. The Augusta subscription was declined if coupled with the unreasonable conditions of which we spoke last week, and it is now understood that it will be unconditionally made. The Directors also concluded a contract with Mr. A. J. Twigg for the speedy grading of the road to McCormick's, and it is not beyond the reasonable prospects of the enterprise that it will be completed and running through in twelve or fifteen months. Mr. W. B. Watson, one of the most practical and energetic of the old Board of Directors, resigned from the new Board, and Mayor May was elected to serve out the remainder of his term, if the Augusta subscription is completed. The meeting of the Directors was judicious and practical, giving entire satisfaction in the matters acted upon to all of our citizens.

The question as to the numerical strength of the next State Democratic Nominating Convention is being discussed all over the State, and the opinion seems to be universal that the number of membership should be increased. In this opinion we heartily concur, for by doubling the representation in the State Convention we will give a larger expression of the popular will in the selection of the candidates than can be done by any other means. It will bring the action of the Convention nearer to the people, and make them feel a greater personal interest in the nominees. It will tend to destroy personal influence, and to give the action of the Convention the dignity of the voice of the people. Such a solution to the bickerings in our party is the most satisfactory, to our mind; and it seems there is no obstacle in the way of increasing the Convention, for the constitution of the party only requires representation in the proportion of the representation of each County in both branches of the General Assembly. It is in the power, therefore, of the State Executive Committee to double the size of the Convention, and we have no doubt that it will do so at its meeting to be held during the latter part of this month.

BLEEDING THE OFFICE-HOLDERS.

The Republican party, which pretends to believe in Civil Service Reform but takes good care not to practice it, is again collecting its bi-ennial Congressional Fund by assessments upon the various officials of the Republican party, from the highest office down to the most insignificant one in the government, and for this purpose the following circular has been sent out from the Congressional Republican Committee to each government official:

HEADQUARTERS
REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL COM.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16.

Sir—This Committee is organized for the protection of the interests of the Republican party in each of the Congressional Districts of the Union. In order that it may prepare, print and circulate suitable documents illustrating the issues which distinguish the Republican party from any other and may meet all proper expenses incident to the campaign, the Committee feels authorized to apply to all citizens whose principles or interests are involved in the struggle. Under the circumstances in which the country finds itself placed, the Committee believes that you will esteem it both a privilege and a pleasure to make to its fund a contribution, which, it is hoped, may not be less than $1. The Committee is authorized to state that such voluntary contribution from persons employed in the service of the United States will not be objected to in any official quarter.

The laborers of the Committee will affect the result of the Presidential election in 1884 as well as the Congressional struggle; and it may therefore reasonably be expected that the sympathy and assistance of all who look, with dread, upon the possibility of the restoration of the Democratic party to the control of the government.

Please make prompt and favorable response to this letter by bank check or draft, or postal money order, payable to the order of the Committee, to the Treasurer, P. O. Lock Box 559, Washington, D. C.

By order of the Committee,
D. B. HENDERSON, Secretary.

A NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR.

A Man Suggested Who Can Easily be Elected.

MR. EDITOR: Please allow me space in your valuable paper to suggest as a candidate for our next Governor Col. Hugh S. Thompson. His experience as a public man, together with his extensive acquaintance with the people of the whole State, with the knowledge he has acquired, by visiting all parts of the State, of the wants of the people, would make him an acceptable man for the place. His ability and integrity, and the satisfactory manner in which he has discharged the duties of his present office, abundantly qualifies him for the position, and will enable him to receive the popular vote. Should he be honored with the office, his appreciation would be shown by the pride he would take in discharging the duties of the office. Hailing from the middle of the State, his nomination would settle the question of sectionalism, and in my opinion, would come nearer uniting the upper and lower portions than any other man. His public career has won for him the esteem and admiration of all classes and in all sections, and those who know him best can heartily endorse him. The people of South Carolina can afford to reward one who has been so faithful in other posts of honor, and by electing him we will have a Governor for the whole people.

The Race for Governor.

COLUMBIA, May 21.—The two most prominent candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor of South Carolina are Gen. John D. Kennedy, of Kershaw, and Gen. John Bratton, of Fairfield. It is known that both of these gentlemen want the office, and that either of them would make a good Governor, and until quite recently the race seemed to have narrowed down to a choice between them. A change, however, is taking place in public sentiment, and from some cause which I cannot explain there will probably be a dark horse in the race. I do not know who it will be, but there is a decided movement in favor of a new man. This is clearly shown by a circular letter which has been addressed to prominent men in various parts of the State by Mr. T. R. Teague, the Democratic chairman of Greenville County, asking for an expression of opinion as to who is the choice of the party in the upper section of the State for Governor. The circular declares that the Democrats of Greenville County are profoundly convinced that unless a new man is nominated for Governor and be the free choice of the people that the party will be in danger of defeat at the next election from disgruntled foes without and dissatisfied friends within.

From conversations I have had with leading men from different parts of the State there is a very strong disposition to nominate Judge Wallace of Union, as a man upon whom the party could solidly unite without regard to local prejudices or geographical boundaries. Judge Wallace does not want the office, and will not be a candidate under any circumstances. He has told me so in as many words, but the indications that he will be nominated, whether he wants to be or not, are very strong. The ground that he is the friend of Judge Wallace takes it that he cannot refuse to be nominated if it is forced upon him, and that the situation is such as to warrant this action. A way of escape may be provided, however, before the August convention meets, as there are a number of other dark horses who may be placed on the political course. I am satisfied that the party throughout the State will support the action of the State convention whatever that action may be and whoever the candidate that may be nominated. The counties will soon all be in line again, with their clubs fully organized, and it will only take the training and discipline of a few weeks to show the red-shirted riders their place in the ranks to that which the Governor, Mr. Kennedy, or Governor Bratton, or Governor Wallace the Democrats of South Carolina will win the next election or know the reason why.

I see by the News and Courier to-day that Attorney-General Youmans has been renominated for attorney-general. He will not be a candidate for re-election to this office, which he has filled with great ability. He is a Columbia man and a clever lawyer throughout the State has determined to run him for Congress from this district. He would be able to read his State even more valuable service in Washington than in the office of attorney-general at Columbia.

The entire assessment of 1881 on the railroads of the State for the expenses of supporting the office of railroad commissioner has been paid. Five of the roads have not yet paid the assessments for 1882. The Ashley River Road paid $4 80, the Charleston and Savannah $207 50, the Cheraw and Chester $23 20, the Northeastern $375 55, and the South Carolina $1,013 25. The Charleston, Savannah and the South Carolina Railways paid their assessments under protest.

The rats in the State House have played havoc with Col. Butler's papers and destroyed a large number of them. A swinging platform has been arranged so as to prevent further depredations. There are 4,939 public school books of various kinds in the State collection, which Col. Thompson will dispose of at low rates. These books are a part of one of the great railroad steals.—J. C. H., in News and Courier.

Talk with a Leader: Greenbacker.

COLUMBIA, June 1.—I had a talk yesterday with Maj. T. H. Russell about the condition, prospects and intentions of the Greenback-Labor party in South Carolina. Maj. Russell is the foreman of the Greenback party in this city, and seems to be quite confident of the ultimate success of the new party movement. He says that there are at present Greenback clubs in Greenville, Oconee, Richland, Lexington, Kershaw, Williamsburg, Chesterfield and Fairfield Counties, and that other clubs will be formed as soon as practicable. There are as yet no county organizations. These will no doubt be formed as the movement progresses and the people become more thoroughly instructed as to the objects and purposes of the new party. The members of the State executive committee are J. Hendrix McLane, of Columbia, chairman; L. W. R. Blair, of Kershaw; W. W. Russell, of Anderson; E. B. Cash, of Chesterfield; V. P. Clayton, of Fairfield; and Brown, of Aiken. The organization of the executive committee will be completed this summer, and the committee will probably meet in the course of a month for the purposes of consultation and to take such steps as may be considered best.

A State Convention of the party will be called, and it is not unlikely that the ticket will be put in the field. Candidates will also be nominated for Congress, and an active canvass of the State will be undertaken for both the State and Federal offices. It is not known whether candidates will be nominated for Congress in all the districts, but in the lower part of the State, where the party for Congress will certainly be made. I do not know who the leaders of the Greenback party will be, but the apostles of the new faith are doing all within their power to get a strong foothold.—J. C. H., in News and Courier.

—Mr. William H. Vanderbilt, of New York, recently gave his check for $1,000 to pay off the debt of Grace Church, Lexington, Va., which was erected in memory of Gen. Robert E. Lee.

—General Smalls, who was refused entertainment at the Revere House in Boston because the clerk "mislike" him for his complexion, has been avenged. A colored post of the Grand Army stopped its band on reaching the hotel on Tuesday, and did not strike up until it had been passed.

—Cadet Whittaker in his lecture at Buffalo said that the theory that he mutilated himself was evolved to save the Academy itself, as a storm of public indignation was preparing to shake it to its very foundation. He denied in the most positive manner possible that he had tampered with his own ears.

—Warden Croker, who has the immediate charge of Guilett in the Washington jail, when asked what his demeanor was, said: "He is a good fellow. If there shall be a large crowd present it will nerve him to Spartan firmness. If, on the contrary, he shall be executed in that corridor over yonder (pointing in the direction of the scaffold) with no spectators beyond the prison authorities, he will die like a craven, and we will be compelled to drag him from his cell."

THE SAVANNAH VALLEY RAILROAD

HAS taken a fresh start, and work will be resumed in a few days, and thus the dream of many of our citizens will probably be accomplished in time to move the next crop. In the meantime our firm

—A special dispatch from Petersburg, Va., dated June 4, says: A destructive hail and wind storm occurred this evening, extending from Halifax to Garysburg, N. C., a distance of ten miles. Several houses were blown down and large trees uprooted. Matilda Gary, colored, and her two daughters, 4 and 5 years old, living near Garysburg, were killed by the blowing down of their house. Other members of the family narrowly escaped alive. The hail stones were as large as one's fists. It is feared there was much destruction of crops. Trains from the south have been delayed by the fallen trees.

—Senator Conkling has had various disappointments. Among them is the disaffection of Governor Cornell, whom he was wont to regard as one of his most trusted lieutenants. According to the New York Tribune, Mr. Conkling, speaking of the probable candidates for Governor of New York the other day, said: "I am sorry to say that I think Mr. Cornell will be the nominee." In further conversation he is reported to have said: "If the Democrats nominate a good man I think they will stand a good chance of electing him this year." For once the Tribune and Mr. Conkling seem to be in accord. They both agree to the probability of Democratic success in one of the most important States in the Union.

—The Pennsylvania bolt has become one of the chief political topics. Mitchell is said to represent 100,000 votes at the least, and his following is becoming more enthusiastic every day. Democratic success there next fall is a certainty with a decent campaign. Sam Randall has been observed to tender his resignation to a Democratic sweep. He is not much in sympathy with the recent idea of nominating Hancock for Governor. That is the pet scheme of Wallace, and it is taking finely. Wallace wants the strongest man to head the ticket to capture the Legislature and secure his own return to the Senate. Randall and Wallace don't pull together, though they did shake hands at Cincinnati in the love fest at the end of the Convention. If Hancock sweeps Pennsylvania he will go into the National Convention with unequal prestige. Randall holds to Tilden with undiminished ardor, and would be against anything that would injure his prospect. He is nursing the Tilden boom with great care. Wallace is a keen manager, and the danger of the Democracy is that he will lead into rival factions. Whatever turn the tide takes, Randall is safe personally. He has the favor of strong Republican influences because of his sympathetic tariff ideas, and the Democratic machinery in his district is loyal to his command. He is already laying siege to the next Speaker'ship, confident, as every Democrat in the House seems to be, of their majority in the next Congress.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Description of our Gin.

THE VAN WINKLE GIN is made with substantial iron frame, self-oiling boxes, brush boxes self-adjusting. Every precaution taken to prevent grit getting in the journals. The brushes are made with iron bound heads, and the sticks dovetailed in and driven in from the end, and any one of them can be taken out or replaced without interfering with the other sticks. We use no wire nor glue, and it is impossible for the sticks to fly off. The ribs are made of best chilled iron and most improved pattern, the saws of best English steel and needle pointed. Every part of the Gin has been gotten up with great care, with the special idea of making a machine that will not get out of order, easily repaired if it should, always ready for work, and give the best general results. Any piece can be duplicated from our factory.

The Van Winkle Feeder and Condenser

Can be attached to any other Gin, so parties having other make of Gins and wishing Feeders or Condensers can be supplied by sending in their order in time, and I will guarantee satisfaction.

All kinds of Pulleys and Shafting furnished to Order.

SCHOFIELD COMMON SENSE ENGINES.

Parties wishing to purchase Engines will find it to their interest to call and see me.

Van Winkle's King Cotton Press

Has long been before the public, and is too well known to need any further description. Its chief points of merit are: It takes very little room, is easily handled, and takes so little power; can be used on all kinds of powers—horse, water or steam. Ginning and packing can all go on at the same time, without interfering the first season in labor.

Read the following Testimonials:

ANDERSON, S. C., April 30, 1881.—Mr. John E. Peoples—Sir: The Steam Power Van Winkle Cotton Press bought from you last Fall has given entire satisfaction. I packed bales of cotton weighing 600 to 725 lbs. in five minutes with all ease, using a 4-inch belt and 25 lbs. steam. There did not seem any more strain on the Press than with a 400 lb. bale. For strength, durability, lightness of power, small quantity of steam required, economy of space, I deem it the King of all Cotton Presses; especially so as the low price at which it can be bought for puts it within reach of every man running a steam Gin. In fact, I would not be without it for twice its cost. I would advise all my friends to buy one of Van Winkle's Steam Power Cotton Presses, as you will save its cost in labor in one year.

M. A. COBB.

ANDERSON, S. C., May 19, 1881.—John E. Peoples—Dear Sir: The Van Winkle Cotton Press bought of you last season has given perfect satisfaction, and I consider it the best Power Press I have ever seen.

S. N. PEARMAN.

ANDERSON, S. C., May 16, 1881.—John E. Peoples—Dear Sir: The Van Winkle Steam Power Press bought of you last Fall is the very Press adapted to the wants of the farmers of this County. It saves labor, takes but very little room, and very little power to run it up and down. We only work one bale with our Press. Can cheerfully recommend it to any one wishing to purchase a Press, as it will save its cost in a short time. We packed bales weighing over 600 lbs. with a 4-inch belt.

J. S. GIBBS, S. CARPENTER.

ANDERSON, S. C., April 30, 1881.—To J. E. Peoples, Agent for Van Winkle Cotton Press: The Van Winkle Power Press bought of you last season is the strongest and most complete Steam Power Press I have ever used, and will pack a bale in 15 minutes. It is durable and convenient in every respect. I would advise any who desire a Press to purchase one.

THE SQUIRREL PROBLEM!

A Squirrel is up a tree and a man on the ground with a gun is trying to shoot it, but the squirrel persists in keeping on the opposite side of the tree from the man. The man walks clear around the tree to the place of starting, the squirrel jumps about in the same direction and keeping the tree all the time between itself and the man. Now, the problem is, "Has the man been around the squirrel?" or has he been around the tree with the squirrel on it, but has he been around the squirrel?
